

NAME: Teruo HIROSE, M.D., Ph.D., F.A.C.S., F.A.C.C.
Board Certified; General and Cardiovascular Surgeon
Chairman of Japanese Health Care Administrators
Professor Emeritus Shumei University

PLACE OF BIRTH: Tokyo Japan

DATE OF BIRTH: January 20, 1926

GRADUATED: Chiba University, School of Medicine, Sept. 1948
With M.D. degree

RECEIVED: Ph.D.(Surgery) from Chiba University, March 1958

APPOINTED: Clinical Professor of Surgery, New York Medical College,
January 1974—June 1989
Professor of Department of Healthcare Administration,
Shumei University, 1999—2006

Performed World First Major Achievement as follows:

1. Atrio septopexy for closure of Atrial septal Defect, 1953
2. Produced lung cancer in animal by cigarette condensate, 1958
3. Used artificial kidney for drug addict and heart failure, 1960
4. Pioneer of Heart Valve Tissue Reconstruction, 1963
5. Pioneer of Coronary bypass surgery (Direct Internal Thoracic Artery Coronary Anastomoses), 1967
6. Inventor of single pass low prime oxygenator for Jehovah Witnesses, 1967

Recipient Heikonen Gold Medal and Bronze Medal from American Medical Associations.

Perform 30,000 Major surgery, 15,000 Major surgery without blood transfusion and 7,000 Vascular surgery in U.S.A.

First prize received from New York State Medical Society.

FELLOW OF: American College of Surgery, Cardiology, Chest Physician, Angiology, Abdominal Surgery and 6 others of Medical Societies.

Founder and Chairman of Japanese Health Care Administrators

Founding member of Society of the Thoracic Surgery

Honorary member of American Society of Artificial Internal Organ

Senior member of American Association for Thoracic Surgery

Superadvisor for Japanese Integrated Medicine

Author in Japanese, Selected list as follows:

1. A Chaos of American Medicine - 1987
2. Major Surgery without blood transfusion 16,000 cases - 1990

Cont'd.

3. Warning for Modern Medical Science(New Medical Ethics) - 1992
4. Comparative Studies of Medical System in the World - 1992
5. Changing Face of Geriatric Medicine - 1994
6. Japanese-American Physician - 1995
7. Enviromental Medicine - 1998
8. Medicine concerning Life and Death - 1999
9. Alternative and Integrated Medicine - 2001
10. Health Care Administration Basis and Practic - 2002
11. What Could We Lean from American Education System - 2003
12. How Do We Care for Aged - 2004
13. Japanese Medicine in 21st Centrury in Japan - 2005

Autor of chapters for 10 books in English and 6 books in Japanese.

About 1500 articles in the fields of cardiovascular surgery and general medicine to American and Japanese medicaljournals.

MAILING ADDRESS' 5830 Tyndall Avenue,
Riverdale, New York, 10471, U.S.A.
Tele; (718)884-1370
FAX; (718)601-2127
e-mail; coronarybypass@earthlink.net